JOHNS BROTHERS SECURITY ACQUIRES PORTSMOUTH COMPANY

March 31, 2010, Norfolk, VA. Dwight Schaubach, President of Johns Brothers Security, announced today that his company, Virginia's largest independent security company, has acquired the customer base of MABC Security, a Portsmouth-based supplier of security equipment and monitoring services to residences and small businesses.

Larry Bond, President and founder of MABC welcomed the acquisition saying: "I can think of no other company which so closely matches my family's and my company's dedication to providing service."

Schaubach, in making the announcement stated: "We welcome the customers of this fine organization to our client base. We want to assure each and every one that the people and processes in place at Johns Brothers will not only continue the excellent service established by MABC, but will strive to expand it."

Schaubach further said, "Johns Brothers Security maintains its own UL-approved Central Monitoring Station at our corporate headquarters in Norfolk. In 2010 we have embarked on an expansion program unparalleled in our history. This acquisition is part of that program. We are bringing new services and products to market and we are planning an extensive campaign to alert the public to the advantages of dealing with a local firm for security."
